

“The mentoring we attended was phenomenal! We were on the verge of divorce and were about to call it quits when we were recommended to MERCY. Dave and Penny were our mentors and they were absolutely wonderful. They ministered as well as counseled and never once did either of us feel they were taking sides (which was a worry). We learned a lot and practice those things daily in our marriage. While marriage is still work and sometimes we still struggle we are now able to still come together at the end of the day and truly say we love each other!”
Tania and Marcus

“When everyone around you is saying your marriage is over, MERCY equips you to save it.” Denise

“Hanging out with you all has saved our marriage! I truly believe that we were going down the slope at a fast pace.”
M & M

“I’m sure I’m speaking on behalf of other couples as well, but words cannot express what an impact MERCY has on making differences in marriage. I would never have heard about any of these programs/workshops, etc. had I not discovered MERCY. . .” J & F

On a Personal Note:

One of the reasons we started MERCY over 20 years ago is because we wanted to let others know there are all kinds of help and resources available to enhance, and possibly, save some marriages.

MERCY is just one of many marriage ministries available. However, if you could make others aware of MERCY, we would love to help. Whether they work with us, want information about upcoming events or referrals to other helps, therapists, intensive programs, etc., please ask them to get in touch with us.

Grace and peace,
Penny and David Hudson

Testimonies from couples who have benefited from MERCY'S services

Please know we are not sharing these because of what we have done. MERCY is simply an instrument God has used and continues to use to touch people, and we want to give Him the glory!

These are just a few testimonies we have received the past few years.

“MERCY saved our marriage.”
Chistine

“I want to let you know how much you helped us and how blessed we are to have met you. I do thank you from the bottom of my heart not only for myself but for our kiddos. They do not know it yet, but you helped save our family and therefore we are going to pay it forward and help others. Susan

“Thanks so much for your heartfelt advice, your time, your love and support. I could go on and on. You have taught us things we can use our whole life - most of all thanks for doing what God has called you to do. You two change lives and give of your time freely.

“We will always be grateful for you both, especially your spiritual guidance.” J&R

David and Penny have mentored all three of our children! We thank them for investing in them and loving them. They are an incredible blessing to our family.” Tina

“Thank you for sharing your Christ-like wisdom with us involving our marriage and our relationship as husband and wife that is pleasing to the Lord.” Bethany

“We are communicating better and are also learning to love one another better.” Rachel

“We went to the workshop. It was terrific. Thank you for all you do for us and other couples.” Hale

“We are grateful that God put us on a path that put us in touch with MERCY and its resources. By the grace of God, MERCY and our new marriage counselor and a lot of hard work, our marriage today is one of fulfillment and peace.” Kelley

“Thank you for being such devoted mentors.” Betty

“You and MERCY are a blessing to us in so many ways.” Jessi

“What a journey. . .The walk with you has helped save our marriage.” S & P

MERCY Services

The mission of MERCY is to strengthen marriages and families through Christ-centered relationship education for singles, engaged couples, married couples and couples in crisis. Our overall goal is to prevent broken families through:

- In-depth premarital education
- Assessment and private marriage coaching for existing marriages
- Private mentoring for couples in crisis
- A monthly electronic newsletter
- A lending library
- A clearing house for classes and seminars in and around Kentucky
- Assistance to churches in developing or enhancing a marriage ministry
- Leadership training for premarital and marriage enrichment
- Helping singles/youth know what to look for in picking a partner
- Referrals to social service agencies, counselors, support groups and healing ministries.
